Burak Is Late Again

Burak is a sixth-grade student. He is often late for school. Every night he plays computer games until midnight, so he can't wake up in the morning. He usually misses the school bus, and his mother takes him to school by car. His teacher, Mr Ömer, talks to him: "Burak, you should go to bed early and set an alarm. You can play games at the weekend." Burak decides to try a new routine: no games after nine o'clock on school nights.

a) Why can't Burak wake up in the morning?

(4 p)

b) Write two pieces of advice from Mr Ömer.

(8 p)

c) Do you think Burak's new routine will help him? Explain with information from the text.

(8 p)

Look at Ada's timeline and read her text.

"My name is Ada. First, I get up at seven o'clock. Then I have breakfast at half past seven. After that, I go to school by bus at eight. I come home at half past three. In the evening, I do my homework. Finally, I go to bed at half past nine."

Now write about your school day like Ada (6–7 sentences). Use first, then, after that and finally, and write at least four clock times.

Write your text.
