Green Week at Our School

Last month, our school organised a “Green Week”. Every class had a different task. The 9th graders planted 50 trees behind the sports field, and the 10th graders made bird houses from old wood. Our music club wrote a song about saving water and performed it at the closing ceremony. The best part was the “Swap Shop”: students brought old books and clothes and exchanged them instead of buying new ones. Our headteacher was very happy because the school produced 30 percent less rubbish that week. Next year, we want to make Green Week a whole month!

a) What was the main aim of Green Week?

(4 p)

b) What did the 10th graders make?

(4 p)

c) Explain how the “Swap Shop” helped the environment.

(8 p)

d) Why was the headteacher happy?

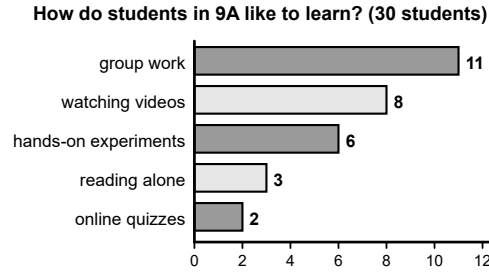

(4 p)

Three Homes, Three Lifestyles

The Demirs live in a flat on the 12th floor in Istanbul. The flat is small, but they can walk to work and school. They never use their car on weekdays.

The Aksoys live in a farmhouse in a village. They grow their own vegetables and keep chickens. The nearest school is 15 km away, so the children take a school bus at 7.00.

Hilal lives alone in a tiny house on wheels. It has only one room, a small kitchen and solar panels on the roof. She moves her house to a new place every few months.

a) Which family spends the least time travelling to work and school? How do you know? (8 p)

b) Why do the Aksoy children leave home early? (3 p)

c) Write one advantage and one disadvantage of Hilal's lifestyle. Use information from the text. (6 p)

d) Which home is best for a family that wants fresh food and a quiet life? Explain. (3 p)

Read Lucas's blog post carefully and answer the questions.

My First Month in Türkiye

Hi everyone! I'm Lucas from Brazil and I'm an exchange student in İzmir this year. My host family is wonderful. Every morning, my host mother makes a big Turkish breakfast with olives, cheese and simit. At school, my classmates help me with Turkish, and I teach them some Portuguese words. Turkish is difficult for me, but I can say "Merhaba" and "Teşekkürler" now! Last week, I saw the Republic Day celebrations. Everybody wore red and white, and there were flags everywhere. In Brazil, our Independence Day is on 7 September, and we also celebrate it with parades. I miss my family, but I'm very happy here.

a) Where and with whom is Lucas living this year?

(3 p)

b) How do Lucas and his classmates help each other?

(6 p)

c) How does Lucas feel about his life in Türkiye? Write a sentence from the text as evidence.

(6 p)

Read Deniz's postcard from Madrid. Then write a postcard (about 50–60 words) to a friend from another capital city. Follow the model: greeting – where you are – two places or activities – language or food – closing.
